Mission Statement:

Our mission is to provide personalized, evidence-based educational services for non-traditional learners in collaboration with families and public school districts.

Opportunities for Parental Involvement

Parents are involved in the student enrollment process, parent/teacher conferences, IEP development and approval.

There are opportunities for parents to attend school events such as craft fair, open house, talent show, and parent teacher conference. These events give parents/care-providers the opportunity to see what their children are learning and how much they are working on building their social skills. Parents/care-providers also have the opportunity to meet other parents/care-providers, which can help with finding out resources for their children and themselves.

Teachers communicate with parents on a daily or weekly basis to touch base and share how the child's day/week went as well as ask for parent input.

When needed, Spectrum Center has provided trainings to help parents with challenges at home, such as ABA principles, video modeling for those with Autism, as well as other training.

Parents will also have the opportunity to participate in the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) self-study accreditation process. We will seek their assistance to evaluate specific areas of our program through surveys, interviews and group meetings.

XI. Postsecondary Preparation

Workability I

Spectrum Center is a state-approved WorkAbility I Program (WAI) site. WorkAbility I is a California transition program and is funded and administered by the Special Education Division of the California Department of Education. The WorkAbility I Program provides resources for transition services with a primary focus on comprehensive pre-employment, work site training, and employment, along with follow-up services for youth in special education.

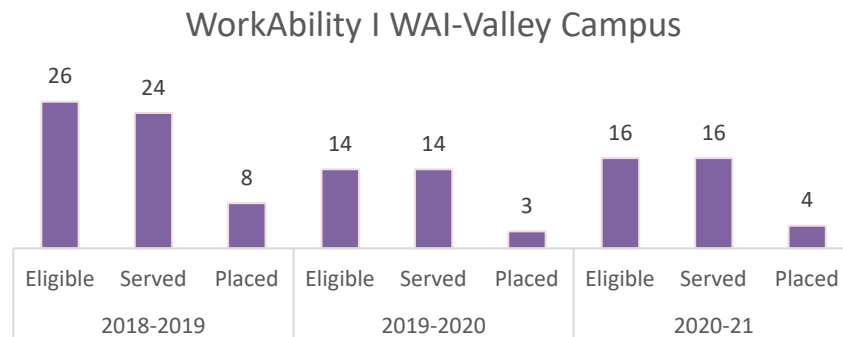

Spectrum's WAI program goal is to provide students with the skills necessary to maximize the level of independence and productivity in their lives, assisting them into a quality adult life.

The State WAI model requires service delivery, data collection, documentation, and reporting in line with WAI's Array of Services. The WAI Array includes, but is not limited to, career awareness and exploration, career counseling, vocational assessments, pre-employment activities that promote employment readiness, job search skills, and job retention, work training, and follow-up services. Spectrum's WAI Program strives to include as many elements of these services as "best practices", based on individual student's skills, abilities, and interests.

Spectrum's WAI program offers pre-vocational / vocational training, and pre-employment and career planning services for students 14-22 aligned as much as possible with each student's Individual Education Plans (IEP). As mandated in the IDEA 2004, and by the age of 16, transition planning, post-secondary goals, and individualized transition services will be addressed simultaneously with the development of the student's annual IEP goals. The Individual Transition Plan (ITP) is based on age-appropriate transition assessments. Measurable post-secondary goals are developed based on students' individual long-term objectives, interests, and preferences, and may include paid work training and other employment-related services. The development and practice of independent living skills are also a part of the long-term goals.

Pre-vocational and vocational training prepares students for future WAI subsidized or direct hire work training and employment opportunities, and includes, but is not limited to, pre-vocational/vocational tasks, mobility training, self-care, training in tolerance with time on task, work maturity standards and values, and the development of effective communication skills. The program features a strong community-based component. Research has shown that it is most productive for our students to learn skills in the natural environment where they will be later expected to demonstrate the skills. In this way, generalization is enhanced and independence maximized.
